|----|--|
| +2 | i. Madison Poole (born on April 1, 1838). |
| +3 | ii. Charles Poole (born in 1862). |
| +4 | iii. Monroe Poole (born in 1866). |

SECOND GENERATION

2. Madison Poole (Belton-1) was born on April 1, 1838 in Enoree, South Carolina. He died on April 1, 1928 in Enoree, Spartansburg Co, South Carolina. He was buried on April 4, 1928 in Cedar Grove Baptist Church, Cross Anchor, South Carolina. He was also known as Mattison and Matt. Madison Poole was born on the first day of April 1838, the first born son of Hannah who was a slave servant in the Belton Poole household. Belton's wife was named Amanda and it has not been determined whether or not they had children. However, Belton had three sons by his servant, Hannah. They were Madison, Monroe and Charles. There was a second female servant of color in the Belton Poole household. Her name was Susan and she was Hannah's mother. Eventually Madison met and married Hattie Bobo.

He was married to Hattie Bobo (daughter of Henry Bobo and Julia Miles Bobo) blank in Plumbranch, McCormick County, South Carolina.

Hattie Bobo was born on January 18, 1864 in Enoree, South Carolina. She died on June 4, 1950 in Enoree, South Carolina. She was buried on June 11, 1950 in Cedar Grove Church Yard, Cross Anchor, South Carolina. Daughter of Henry and Julia Miles Bobo, with 9 siblings and wife of Madison Poole and mother of (11) children, Hattie was a female of influence in Enoree, South Carolina. She and her husband, Madison, were property owners and lived on a street named for her husband: "Poole Street."

Family member say that she claimed all of those names listed and was proud of them. I do not remember hearing other than Hattie. In fact, almost everyone called to her as Ms. Lattimore. I don't know why, but I know that it is true.

She lived in what was called the "big house" and had all of those things consistant with a properous small farm. She had chickens and pigs, cows, ducks and other barnyard critters. She had bee hives and own well. There were also gardens and fruit trees. Madison Poole and Hattie Bobo had the following children:

Sis Mary Sue Poole was born on August 11, 1888 in Enoree, South Carolina. She died on March 25, 1971 in Enoree, South Carolina. She was buried on March 29, 1971 in Cedar Grove Batist Church Yard, Cross Anchor, South Carolina. Mary Sue Poole (Aunt Sis) was the first born of the eleven children of Madison and Hattie Bobo-Poole. She was thin, fair of skin, with waist length hair. She was briefly married to William Strobner.

They had no children.

She died quietly on March 25, 1971, in Enoree, South Carolina, where she had lived most of her life. She is buried in Cedar Grove Baptist Church Yard.

ii. James Bud Poole (born on February 11, 1885).

+7 iii. Fletcher Poole (born on June 3, 1890).

Deacon William Allen Poole was born on June 17, 1891 in Enoree, South Carolina. He died on July 27, 1980 in Chicargo, Illinois. He was buried on August 3, 1980 in Burr Oak, Worth, Illinois.

9 v. Jesse James (Soul) Poole was born in February 1894 in Enoree, South Carolina. He died blank in Enoree, South Carolina. There are no pictures and very little information available on Jess James Poole. I am told that when he became ill that he had a tent erected in his mother's back yard where he died. I will, of coures include any additional information that comes available.

+10 vi. Edward Poole (born on July 6, 1896).

+11 vii. Janie Poole (born on January 19, 1897).

He was buried on May 9, 1954 in Cedar Grove Baptist Church Yard, Cross Anchor, South Carolina. I don't have a picture of Uncle Bud or Aunt Bea and I don't know much about them. I do have some recollection of them. They lived about 60 yards to the left of grandma Hattie's house. They had no children and maintained a garden between the houses and used grandma's well for water. I believe they grew peanuts.

Uncle Bud had a cafe in his yard on the other side of the house. It was the only black owned establishment of its type in Enoree. There was a huge disturbance there once and he shot two men, killing one of them. It was determined a justified incident. There are several stories as to how the incident evolved.

He was married to Beatrice Brown in Plumbranch, McCormick County, South Carolina. Beatrice Brown was born in Plumbranch, McCormick County, South Carolina. She died in Enoree, South Carolina.

Fletcher and Laura Poole

7. Fletcher Poole (Madison-2, Belton-1) was born on June 3, 1890 in Enoree, Spartansburg Co, South Carolina. He died on June 22, 1974 in Enoree, South Carolina. Uncle Fletch was the third child and second son born to Madison and Hattie. He was born in 1890 in Enoree, South Carolina. He was a quiet genius of a tinker. He tinkered with clocks and watches, he tinkered with electricity and radios and he tinkered with foot peddled sewing machines. He made his own clothes and his own eyeglasses.

Fletcher was married twice. He married Lillie Young and Laura Garrett. He had two daughters. Uncle Fletch was also one of the great story tellers of Enoree. People would come from all around to hear him tell stories of things in the bible. He is buried in Cedar Grove Baptist Church Yard.

He was married to Laura Garrette in Plumbranch, McCormick County, South Carolina. Laura Garrette was born in Plumbranch, McCormick County, South Carolina. She died in Enoree, South Carolina. Fletcher Poole and Laura Garrette had the following children:

11. Janie Poole (Madison-2, Belton-1) was born on January 19, 1897 in Enoree, South Carolina. She died on May 27, 1924 in Enoree, South Carolina. It is said that Janie or Jannie was a strikingly beautiful female. She died at a very young age.

She was married to Thomas Pearson on June 19, 1915 in Enoree, South Carolina.

13. Clarence Poole, Sr. (Madison-2, Belton-1) was born on July 15, 1901 in Enoree, South Carolina. He died on November 22, 1973 in Enoree, South Carolina. He was buried on November 25, 1973 in Cedar Grove Baptist Church Yard, Cross Anchor, South Carolina. Clarence Poole was born on the 15th of June, 1901, in Enoree, South Carolina. He was the ninth child born to Hattie Bobo-Poole and Madison Poole. He was a tall handsome man with smooth features and a gentle disposition. He was one of a very few men of color in this region to hold a professional job. He was a Loom Operator in the Enoree Factory.

He met and married an adorable young lady from Clinton, South Carolina. Her name was Mary Magdalene Copeland, the daughter of Will Copeland and Eula Mae Beasley. Their union was blessed with six children: two female children and four male children.

He was married to Mary Magdalene Copeland (daughter of Will Copeland and Eula Mae Beasley) on August 10, 1923 in Woodruff, South Carolina.

Mary Magdalene Copeland was born on July 4, 1909 in Clinton, South Carolina. She died on April 25, 1995 in Washington, D. C.. Mary Magdalene Poole Price was born on July 4, 1909. She was born to the union of the late Will Copeland and Eula Mae Beasley-Copeland. She was the widow of HENRY PRICE, her second husband, who departed this life in 1986. She was survived by four sons, Clarence Poole, Jr., Willie E Poole, Ralph Y. Poole, Boyd Poole, two daughters, Eula M. Cummings and Bobbie S. Ellerbee, all by her first husband Clarence Poole, Sr.

She was a native of Clinton, South Carolina and settled in Washington D. C., with her six children, in 1940. She had two daughters-in-law and one son-in-law, twenty grand children, 44 great grandchildren and seven great grandchildren. She had one sister, Lenese Blassingame, and two brothers, Charles S. Copeland and Willie C. Anderson.

She was the central figure in the lives of the Poole/Price/Cummings families. Her 68 acre farm, in Crownsville, Maryland, was a family refuge. She was a Rummage Sale (second hand store) patron. She and her husband had a hauling business. They hired out their dump trucks to contractors building road in the Washington Metropolitan Area. They bought properties in Capitol Heights and Glenarden, Maryland to use as landfills for dirt. The HENRY PRICE TRASH COMPANY was the first such business in the Metropolitan Washington District of Columbia area for African Americans. They were also scrap metal dealers and were given the street cars and telephones that were removed from Washington Streets. Her "pig" farm was the second largest in the area. Her estate, at her death, was in excess of $1.5 million. She departed this life on April 25, 1995.

26. William A. Poole (Edward-3, Madison-2, Belton-1) was born on April 10, 1921 in Enoree, Spartansburg Co, South Carolina. He died on May 25, 1979 in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. William Allen Poole was just a very special person. When he worked, he was a tractor trailer driver and a very good one. He was like a gypsy. He would just show up at our house, in Washington, D. C. and stay for weeks or months and even longer. My mother loved him, so did we all, but he was like a son to her. He had a quick lovable smile and an easy believable conversation. He called my mother "Reed" and I never knew the reason. He worked for my mother for a number of years as a truck drive.

He had female friends everywhere. They all seemed to love him. He told them stories that nobody else could get away with. He was once engaged to two women who lived only about three blocks apart. At the same time he had families in Enoree and in New Jersey.

He was friendly and engaging and he knew and shared lots of interesting stories. I never heard him say a swear word. He had his own phrases, i. e. "in the evening breeze" or when he needed a real expletive, he would say "jump-back-it."

He may have been a sort of a rogue, but, he was very likable. My family love him.

He was married to Pearl Peaks in Enoree, South Carolina. Pearl Peaks was born Unavailable in Enoree, South Carolina. William A. Poole and Pearl Peaks had the following children:

- 50 i. Harold Poole was born on March 6, 1943 in Enoree, South Carolina. He died on October 10, 2003.
- +51 ii. Roger Poole (born on February 14, 1941).

27. Clarence Poole, Jr. (Clarence-3, Madison-2, Belton-1) was born on June 1, 1924 in Enoree, South Carolina. He died on October 18, 1996 in Forestville, Maryland. He was also known as June. Clarence Poole, Jr. (affectionately known by his family and friends as Junior) was born June 1, 1924 to Mary and Clarence Poole, Sr. in Enoree, South Carolina. He accepted Jesus at an early age and was a member of Cedar Grove Baptist Church in Enoree, South Carolina. He was tall, handsome and had a quick winning smile. He had three brothers: Willie Edward, Ralph Yancy and Boyd. He had two sisters: Eula Mae and Bobbie Sue.

In the early 1940s, Junior was drafted into the U. S. Army where he served two terms, achieved the rank of Sergeant, and met his beloved wife, Victoria Alberto in the Philippines. They were married August 18, 1946. This union was blessed with 11 children, 28 grand children, and 6 great grand children.

He operated heavy equipment and drove every type of vehicle. He was talented in landscaping, painting, remodeling and drywall. He found work for and changed the lives of many men who had given up on life. He taught his brother Boyd and his sons, Clarence Michael and Victor Ricardo the dry wall trade.

Clarence Poole Junior started his own family operated drywall construction company in the early 1970s. He successfully operated his business along with his son Michael, daughter Diane and his devoted friend Luther Bethea until December 1995. His business still thrives in the name of Poole Enterprises under the ownership of Clarence Michael Poole.

When he wasn't working, Junior and Victoria spent a lot of time "on the river" fishing. He was sometimes referred to as "King Fish."

His joy in life was his children and grandchildren. He was always kidding around with his children and found humor in renaming all of his grandchildren to suit himself.

He was married to Victoria Alberto (daughter of Andres Alberto and Sabaia Alberto) on August 18, 1946 in Minila, Philippines.

Victoria Alberto was born on March 23, 1926 in Manila, Phillipines. She was also known as Vickie and Vic. Victoria met June while he was stationed in the phillipines. At the time that she first met him, she was married with an infant son named Rainey. Vic's husband got sick some time after that and died. June came to help the family cope with their loss. As fate would have it, they fell in love and got married.

When June's time in the military ended, he returned home to enlist again so he could come back to take his bride back to the states. His mother, sisters and brothers were surprised when June announced that he was re-enlisting in the Army so that he could go back to the Phillipines to be with his wife and child. When his stay in the Phillipines ended, June and Vickie and family returned to Washington, D. C.

Tragedy struck Vic and June early in their marriage. Their first two boys, James and Fred, were killed by a crazy preacher and his friend. This happed when they lived at 402 Franklin Street in North West Washington. A D. C. police detective shot and killed the man who killed the boys.

Vickie has had many talents. She was an expert seamtress and she could crocket and knit. She made many wedding dresses and bridesmaid dresses. She pierced many little girls' ears, those of her family and neighborhood families. She has been the baby sitter for all her grandchildren and for Boyd's daughters and for many other families.

Vic and June liked to go fishing together in his boat. They would catch lots of perch and would give family members nice fresh fish. June and Vic spent many days on the farm helping with the gardens and the pigs. She loved to clean, prepare and cook the fresh meat from hog killing time. Vic and June would sometimes "burn copper" to make extra money for their family.

When faced with adversity, she is always positive and couereous. She is much loved by all her family. Clarence Poole, Jr. and Victoria Alberto had the following children:

Willie Edward Poole was born June 23, 1926 in Henderson, North Carolina to the late Mary Poole Price and Clarence Poole, Sr. He departed life on Friday, November 8, 1996 at the Vetern's Administration Hospital in Washington, D. C. He spent his formative years in Enoree, South Carolina and was drafted into the U. S. Army late 1940s where he achieved the rank of Technical Sergeant. He retire from the U. S. Department of Agriculture in 1980 after 30 years of government service as a printer.

He was a fun-loving, generous, family man. He was devoted to the care of his mother and his sisters and brothers. He was like a father to his younger sisters and brothers since his early teens. He also enjoyed many good times with his older brother, Clarence. He was an excellent card and checker player and a great story teller. He was also an adroit heavy truck driver.

Eloyce Holt was born in Washington, D. C.. Willie Edward Poole and Eloyce Holt had the following children:

i. Rosemary Poole was born in Washington, D. C..

29. Eula Mae Poole (Clarence-3, Madison-2, Belton-1) was born on September 15, 1929 in Enoree, South Carolina. Eula Mae was born in Enoree, South Carolina, on September 15, 1929. She was the third child and first daughter of Mary Magdalene and Clarence Poole Sr. She moved with her mother, baby sister and step-father, Henry Price, to 410 K Street N. W. Washington in the Spring of 1940. Later that year they moved 402 Franlin Street, N. W. and were joined by three of her brothers, Edward, Ralph and Boyd. In 1943 they moved to 1518 Montana Avenue, N. E. and in 1950 they moved to 1015 New Jersey Avenue in N. W. Washington.

Eula married John Henry Cummings Jr. and moved to Kilborne Stree in upper North West Washington.

She had seven children, the last being a boy, John Henry Jr. Her six girls were Willie Mae, Bobbie Sue, Brenda Eloyce, Dynese and Lisa. Eula and her children lived on 11th Street, N. W. when her husband passed. They eventually bought a home on 8th Street in N. W. Washington.

She had a life long love affair with her siblings, her children and her church. She was a companion of the sick and had full compassion for everyone. She was especially attached to her mother whose death left her seriously scared. She was very passionate about her church, The New Southern Rock Baptist Church where she labored with drives, fund raisers, boarder babies, committees and other activities. She witnessed, with great pride, the marked success of all of her children. They all did well, bought suburban homes and gave her grandchildren.

She was married to John Henry Cummings in 1942 in Washington, D. C..

John Henry Cummings was born on June 21, 1924 in Washinton, Georgia. Eula Mae Poole and John Henry Cummings had the following children:

31. Boyd Poole (Clarence-3, Madison-2, Belton-1) was born on October 23, 1934 in Enoree, South Carolina. He was named after Boyd Short Poole. The fourth son and fifth child of Clarence and Mary Magdalene Poole, Boyd, was born in Enoree, South Carolina, and named after his uncle. He was brought to Washington, D. C. at an early age and was educated in the District's public school system. He was drafted into the military (Army Signal Corps) in 1958 and served a two year tour in Germany. He was re-called to service in 1961 for the Berlin crisis.

He was a career civil servant and worked as a civilian in the Department of the Navy for 34 years. He had a very interesting and successful career. He grew up in the world of automatic data processing. He started his computer career as a GS335-5 Computer Specialist and spent much of his time in commercial data processing schools.

In November, 1969, he married the charming Dorothy Marie Bullock of Fayetteville, North Carolina. They had two daughters: Rosalyn Michelle and Marlene Yvonne. Rosalyn had two boys and one girl. Boyd was sort of a mamas's boy and he hung around his mother a lot and picked up some of her excellent domestic skills. He spent a lot of time on his mother's farm doing a variety of farm related tasks. At the same time, Boyd had a long and very successful career in the Department of Defense.

He served as Chairman of the United Methodist Men's Youth Enrichment Program for 15 years and he directs the Senator's Students Legislative Day in the Maryland General Assembly. He was Chairman of the Committee that named a high school for Tuskegee Airman, Aviation Captain Charles Herbert Flowers.

He was married to Dorothy Marie Bullock (daughter of Mark J. Bullock and Carrie Elizabeth Bailey) on November 21, 1969 in Washington, D. C..

Dorothy Marie Bullock was born on June 6, 1943 in Lillington, North Carolina. Dorothy was the third child in a family with four children. She had two older brothers, Carl and Jerome, and one younger sister, Rozita. They were raised in Fayetteville, North Carolina by their parents, Mark and Carrie Bullock..

She attended Newbold Training School, an elementary school located on the campus of Fayetteville State Teachers College. Teaching students did their practice teaching at this elementary school. As a result, the children in this elementary school had several different teachers during the school year. That meant that students were able to work in small groups and received more individual attention.

Dorothy attended E. E. Smith Senior High School and was an outstanding student. She was inducted in the Myrtle Lennon Chapter of the National Honor Society in the tenth grade. She was a member of the French Club, the Guidance Counselors' Club, and the Glee Club. She also was the Senior Class Secretary. She graduated from Smith in 1961 and was the class Valedictorian.

She attended North Carolina College at Durham from 1961-65. During her time there, she excelled in her studies earning a straight "A" average in her freshman year and an overall "B+" average for her four years there. While at NCC, she was inducted into Pi Delta Phi, a French Honor Society, and into Alpha Kappa Mu, a national honor society for institutions of higher learning. She was elected to Who's Who in Colleges and Universities in her senior year. She was a senior counselor and member of the student congress. In her sophomore year, she became a member of the Alpha Chi chapter of the Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority.

After graduating from college, she taught French at a high school in the Williamsburg-James City school district in Virginia. After that year, she moved to Washington, D.C. and began working for the Navy Department as a clerk-typist. She took the Federal Service Entrance Exam and scored a GS-7 rating. This opened the door for her to enter a professional series government job. She chose to become a computer programmer trainee for the Navy. The computer field then became her chosen career path and also brought her to her life partner, Boyd Poole. They met while both were working at Naval Material Support Command located at the Navy building on Constitution Avenue in Washington, D. C.

As a programmer/analyst, Dorothy worked for the Department of the Navy, the Interior Department, Brookings Institution and the Census Bureau. She retired from the Census Bureau as a GS-12 step 7 in June 2000.

Dorothy has been involved in several other interests and hobbies outside of work:

She was a member and officer of the PTSA at Walker Mill Middle School while her daughter, Marlene, was a student there. She also, was an officer of the first Bowie High School High PTSA while both her daughters attended there.

She was active in Sunday School and the United Methodist Women of Gethsemane United Methodist Church. She was the Sunday School Superintendant for one year when she was a member of Ebenezer United Methodist Church and she was also a member of the Ebenezer United Methodist Women. She was a member of the Ebenezer Chancel Choir for about 3 years. During that time, she began taking voice lessons and become one of the choir soloists. She began attending Sargent Memorial Presbyterian Church some time in 1996 because she liked the music sung by the Chancel Choir of Sargent. She has become one of the soloists for that choir also. She became an official member of Sargent 2003 and that year she joined the Presbyterian Women's group.

Since retirement, she has taken voice classes at Prince Georges Community College. Also, she has completed a genealogy study and book for her mother's grandfather's line of the Bailey family. In 2004, she planned and hosted the 24th Annual Bailey Family Reunion in Beltsville, Maryland.

Thru the years, she has been an ardent supporter of many of Boyd's activities. She has helped with Wilburn Civic Association projects and 24th Legislative District political activities.

walking in the woods and enjoying the Aquatic Gardens, a lilly covered body of water in Kenilworth once known as the Lilly Pond. Michael was educated in the the Washington District of Columbia Public School System and graduated from Spingarn High School in 1972 Later, he attended the University of the District of Columbia.

Michael went to work in his father's Dry Wall Construction Business, later to become a home improvement business. He met and married Katherine Webster and from this union came four children: Umeko, Lamarr, Michael and Kathlaya. This ;union lasted for seven years.

On July 17, Michael married Debbie Daniels. On July 19, 1989, Debbie gave birth to their son, Jarett Tyler Poole. Michael and Debbie started their own business, "Poole Enterprises", that same year. Michael also continued to do some work in his father's business. As his father's health declined, Michael assumed more responsibility for his business. When his father died in 1996, Michael took charge of his father's business, hired the employees and combined the two businesses. Poole Enterprises is operational to this day.

Michael is highly respected for his work. One of his outstanding works can be seen on Frank Tippet Road in Cheltenham, Maryland. That is where, at age 46, he built the home of his childhood dreams. It is a standing example of what hard work and keeping a dream alive can become.

71. Rosalyn Michelle Poole (Boyd-4, Clarence-3, Madison-2, Belton-1) was born on March 13, 1971 in Columbia Hospital, Washington, D. C. She was christened on October 8, 1972 in Ward Memorial A.M.E. Church, Washington D. C. Rosalyn was a happy and active toddler who began walking at the age of 10 months. When she was 4 she began taking dance lessons at Art Linkletter Totten School of dance. She learned tap, ballet and tumbling. She appeared in two dance recitals with this school. Her last dance school was Contemporary Ballet. When she tired of dance, she started taking piano lessons. She was an excellent student in piano but she didn't like to practice every day after school. When she reached the seventh grade she gave up the piano but she continued to play the flute which she had taken up in the fifth grade. When she got to the tenth grade, she gave up playing the flute.

Rosalyn was in the TAG (Talented and Gifted) program from the fifth grade until she graduated from high school. Rosalyn attended Eleanor Roosevelt High school in the ninth and half of the tenth grade. She graduated from Bowie High School in May 1989. Her combined score on the SAT was 1100 and this helped her win scholarships from Hampton University and from Salisbury State University. However, she chose to enroll in a co-op program which was offered to her by the NAVY department and she went to Duquesne University in Pittsburg. She attended Duquesne for 3 years. She returned to Maryland and attended Howard University for a semester. The next semester, she worked at NAVY as a co-op intern. During that time, she developed and taught a word processing class to Navy personnel. She was awarded an Outstanding rating for the work which she had done during her co-op semester. She then went to Philadelphia and attended Temple University for a year. Her major studies field was Management Information Systems.

While at Duquesne University, Rosalyn became a member of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority. She was active in their step team and also was an officer.

Rosalyn married her college sweetheart, Michael Wilson, on July 5, 1997. Their wedding took place one day before their son, Quinton Steele, turned one year old. Rosalyn and Michael lived in Philadelphia for about two years. Their second son, Brandon Anthony, was born there. Michael received a promotion and they had to move to St. Louis, Missouri. While in St. Louis, their daughter, Sarina Elizabeth, was born. Shortly after her birth, Michael got another promotion and the family moved to Lawrenceville, Georgia, a suburb of Atlanta. They were there for about another two years. Michael's current promotion has taken the family to live in Charlotte. Rosalyn hopes to resume her career again once Brandon starts kindergarten and Sarina is old enough for regular day care.

Michael Wilson (son of Edward Wilson and Mildred Wilson) was born in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. Rosalyn Michelle Poole and Michael Wilson had the following children:

72. Marlene Yvonne Poole (Boyd-4, Clarence-3, Madison-2, Belton-1) was born on May 17, 1973 in Columbia Hospital, Washington, D. C. She was christened on June 9, 1974 in Ward Memorial A.M.E. Church, Washington D. C. Marlene was a sweet, calm baby who loved apple juice. She adored her older sister. When Rosalyn was in dance class, Marlene would sit on a bench in the room watching the class in rapt attention. Before she turned three, she was invited to join the class even though three was the age requirement for enrollment. She was as good as any of the older students but one day she had an accident during one of the class exercises. The children were holding hands while doing an exercise and the older children moved too fast for Marlene and she was swept off her feet and landed on her chin. Dorothy took her to Greater Southeastern Hospital where the doctors put her in a Papoose and stitched up her chin. Marlene was very brave and cried just a little bit. Marlene performed in one dance recital with the Art Linkletter Totten group. She was the youngest child on the stage but she performed like a pro. Like Rosalyn, Marlene took music lessons too. She took piano lessons along with her sister. She also played the clarinet in elementary and middle school.

Marlene was in the TAG program from third grade thru high school. Marlene attended Bowie High School and was an honor roll student. Marlene was an outstanding member of the MOCK Trial Team. Marlene had a combined score of 1100 on her SAT test. This score helped her get a scholarship to Towson State University. Marlene graduated from Bowie High School in May 1991 and enrolled in Towson State. Marlene became a member of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority while attending Towson. She graduated from Towson State University in December 1996 with a degree in English.

Marlene went to work for the Society for Neuroscience in Washington, D. C, after graduating from college. She started out as Office Manager and thru conscientious, proficient hard work, she became the Director of the Membership Department of the Society. Marlene returned to school while working full time and she earned her Master's Degree in Human Resources Development from Bowie State University in May 2003. She has bought a house in Upper Marlboro, MD where she now resides.
